LaSalle hosting holiday bonanza

LaSalle Ont. December 1 — The Town of LaSalle is hosting a holiday bonanza at the Vollmer Culture and Recreation Complex on Saturday, December 2.

Starting at 8 a.m. a holiday “one-stop-shop” market will open to the public, lining the corridors of the Vollmer Complex. More than 20 local vendors, including Scentsy, Norwex and Epicure, will be selling hand-crafted goods, specialty teas, soaps, herbal products, and more. The Town of LaSalle will also be selling swimming and skating packages at 50 per cent off.

LaSalle’s annual Pancake Breakfast with Santa will also be held in the Vollmer Complex on December 2, beginning at 9 a.m. All 300 tickets for the breakfast sold out weeks in advance. In addition to a pancake feast, the breakfast also offers guests a chance to meet LaSalle Mayor Ken Antaya, and includes fun activities for kids like face painting and a guitar sing-a-long, all sponsored by Essex Power Corporation.

The Vollmer Complex’s Fitness Centre will also be holding an open house during the holiday bonanza. Visitors age 16 and over can take advantage of free day passes to the gym, enjoy fresh fruit and cold water, and buy special holiday memberships to the fitness centre.

“The holiday bonanza is a great way to spend time with your family,” said Dawn Hadre, communications director for the Town of LaSalle. “You’ll make memories that you’ll cherish forever.

In addition to fun events, the Town of LaSalle is also hosting Sparky’s Toy Drive and is asking for brand new toy donations. All festivities will be held from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.
